BUD STILLMAN ABDUCTS FIANCEE IN OLD FLIVVER

Heir to Millions Defies Family and Carries Off Rustic Sweetheart in Drama of North Woods

[Copyright, 1927, by New York News.]
GRANDE ANSE (Que.) July 22. (Exclusive)—Bud Stillman's dream of the sweet rustic simplicity that was to frame his love idyll with a Cinderella of the Canadian wilds has become a nightmare of savage family quarrels. Twenty-four hours ago arrangements for the marriage definitely were canceled. But announced his intention to plunge into the forests and remain there for months. His bride-to-be tearfully insisted she would go to Montreal to become a manicurist.

WILL CUTS OFF CAROL

But King Offers Forgiveness

Ferdinand's Testament Gives Royal Property to Queen and Other Children

Marie Praised in Document; Child Monarch Adjoins Troops to be Loyal

[Copyright, 1927, by Chicago Tribune.]
BUCHAREST, July 22. (Exclusive)—I forgive Carol and I hope he will make no difficulty to his son, to his family and to his country.

These were the last written words of the dying King Ferdinand in a letter to Premier Bratianu, published today.

The King's testament, which was read to the members of the royal family and the government at Binaia Palace today, is a veritable love letter, praising his faithful wife, Queen Marie.

The testament, however, contains a codicil, which takes from Prince Carol all estates and other gifts, but still leaves him an inheritance of the last provisions for his children.

Queen Marie, who was present at the reading of the testament and was quite overcome by grief, she remained with the body of her royal husband.

The second part of the will distributes the black sheep, Carol, of the family, which he has abandoned property which was willed to him two weeks after his abdication and makes Queen Marie beneficiary until the new King Michael becomes of age.

FRANKS QUEEN
Minister of Justice Popescu opened the will of the late monarch, which was divided into two parts, the first written in January 2, 1926, and the second written on January 11, 1926, two weeks after the abdication of Prince Carol.

The will begins with a prayer "to God that he will cure my illness," he thanks God for his mercy and the codicil makes a will in his duty to make a will in which the

NEW FLIGHT PROJECT

German Plans to Circle Globe

Baron Barnekow Hopes to Break Record Set by Army Aviators

Start Set for Early Date; Plane Reported Already Near Completion

NEW YORK, July 22. (Exclusive)—A solo flight around the world at the heading speed of 180 miles an hour over continents, over oceans, heading always due west until he returns to Roosevelt Field, from which he will start, is the plan of Baron E. A. Barnekow, one of the Rauche's companions and countrymen and World War ace. He hopes to start in August and he plans to make few stops. His plane is already half built.

It was only through the fact that the Baron has taken Miss Rauche under his own airplane wing, so to speak, that his own plans became known to more than a few intimates.

For this young scion of a wealthy German family, owner of great dye interests in Germany, has offered all his service and support to the daring young woman from the Paderborn who brought herself and her plane to a foreign land to try for a flight across the Atlantic to Germany.

He has been away from his country for several years, living in England and America.

He probably will beat Miss Rauche to aerial fame—that is, on the large scale to which such fame has been boosted by recent transatlantic activities for the coast guard and her plane to a foreign land to try for a flight across the Atlantic to Germany.

He has contracted for a specially constructed Curtiss Hawk, a four-engine, 400-horsepower motor, with an average speed of more than 180 miles an hour.

The Baron hopes to break the globe-circling speed records now existing, made by the United States Army "round-the-world" fliers.

His first three stops will be San Francisco, Hawaii and Japan. More he refused to reveal. In Germany he is officially credited with having downed himself and his plane in a fight with the Richthofen "Circus" unit.

PAULINE RASCHKE GIVES FIRST EXHIBITION
ROOSEVELT FIELD (N. Y.) July 22. (Exclusive)—The Rauche, German stunt flier, has her first flight from America today, when she took up her little Pinner plane for ten minutes of exhibition flying.

Notified by Grover Whalen, vice-president of the big transatlantic company, that there would no longer be room for her plane at Roosevelt Field, she arranged to store it at Curtis Field.

WOLF KILLS SMALL SON OF RICH MAN

Animal Attacks Child in Doorway of Home After Escaping from Zoo

MIDDELTOWN (N. J.) July 22. (Exclusive)—His body mangled by more than twenty bites inflicted by a female wolf which had escaped from his father's private zoo and attacked him in the doorway of his home, Thomas K. Helton, 24-year-old son of wealthy Oliver W. Helton, center of the Twin Brook Zoo at Middletown, died today in Woodley Hospital.

Twin Brook zoo is the one from which an Indian leopard escaped on August 8, last year, and terrorized the countryside until October 15, when it was trapped and shot by a farmer near Tom's River. Both animals escaped while they were being transferred from one to another.

The wolf slipped out of the zoo yesterday and was killed by a hunter after it had bitten young Thomas.

Health Bulletin Explains How to Fight Epidemic

SACRAMENTO, July 22. (Exclusive)—Alarmed by the appearance of a slight polio epidemic (infantile paralysis) epidemic in California during recent weeks, the State Board of Health today issued a bulletin for the guidance of health officers and others for preventing and reporting the disease.

The bulletin stresses the need for care by members of households where a suspected case is under observation, along with regulations for quarantine, contacts and disinfection after release from quarantine.

Austrians Jail Communist as Trouble Inciter

GERMANS REHEARSE FLIGHT

Teuton Pilots in Try-out for Atlantic Dash Plan to Set Up New Duration Record

BERLIN, July 22. (Exclusive)—To beat the fifty-one-hour duration flight record of Charles Chamberlain and Bert Acosta and rehearse a German flight to the United States, the German pilots Loe and Bistonia went up in a Junker airplane at Dessau this morning at 4:35 o'clock.

They have gas for three days and two nights and they intend to fly until Sunday morning, winging back forth between Dessau and Leipzig. At 8 o'clock tonight the airplane had covered 1325 miles.

SCALPERS IN PLEDGE ON TICKETS

New York Agencies Give Promise to Limit Price Advance to Fifty Cents

NEW YORK, July 22. (Exclusive)—Four theater ticket agencies today issued a statement pledging themselves hereafter to sell tickets at not more than 50 cents advance over the actual price they pay for them.

The agencies professed willingness to co-operate with the United States Attorney in his investigation into the Broadway ticket brokerage business.

George White and Florenz Ziegfeld, revue producers, were examined by Mr. Tuttle at the hearing before United States Commissioner Cotten today. Although little information was elicited from Mr. White, George Morley, his box-office manager, testified that $51,938 was paid him in gratuities last year from agencies for choice seats. Of this amount, he said 75 per cent was paid to the corporation of which Mr. White is the head.

Mr. Ziegfeld declared the testimony of Arthur Hammerstein, producer, to the effect that Ziegfeld had accepted a premium from ticket agencies was "a lie."

It was an attempt to force him into the central ticket agency plan adopted at a meeting of theater managers in June, he asserted, characterizing the plan as "a plot" of the Shubert interests, which he said own or control most of the theaters in the city.

He said he had successfully used a system of making agencies handling his tickets give bond to assure that they would not sell tickets for more than 50 cents in advance of what they paid for them.

CUTTER OF GULF FLEET NOW ADRIFT

Comanche Disabled After Fire, With Radio Useless; Tug Goes to Aid

GALVESTON (Tex.) July 22. (Exclusive)—Disabled as the result of a blaze in her steroom and out of radio communication with land, the United States Coast Guard cutter Comanche is adrift in the Gulf of Mexico about 170 miles to the southeast of Galveston.

Fire in the firing-room shortly after midnight this morning crippled the ship and left her without steam power. At 2 o'clock this morning the Comanche got in touch with the local radio station and reported the fire, declaring that no one was injured and requesting a tug to come to her assistance.

The radio set soon after was rendered useless due to lack of steam after reserve batteries were exhausted.

The Bay Towing Company tugboat Miraflores was sent to sea to search for the Comanche about 3:30 o'clock this morning. The Coast Guard cutter is presumed to be drifting eastward from her original position in the one-mile-an-hour ocean current. A crew of about sixty officers and men is aboard the vessel.

NAVY AVIATOR BURNED
WASHINGTON, July 22. (Exclusive)—Commander E. E. Wilson, naval aviator, was slightly burned and bruised when his plane made a forced landing at the Anacostia naval air station today, turned over and was burned.

SEA PARLEY WILL GO ON

British Support Naval Envoys

Delegation Will Return to Geneva for Continuance of Arms Discussion

Long Cabinet Session Backs Stand of Bridgeman and Other Negotiators

LONDON, July 22. (Exclusive)—The Geneva negotiations for reduction of naval armaments are to be resumed without delay, under a decision reached today by the Cabinet. Effectively attending varied reports of the imminent collapse of the conference, the Cabinet decided that, at least, of the British delegation summoned here to report shall leave immediately to resume the discussions.

The Cabinet council was the longest held since those during the coal strike last year. Four hours were devoted to listening to reports by Viscount Cecil and W. C. Bridgeman on the developments at Geneva and apparent obstacles to successful termination of the conference.

GO BACK AT ONCE
It was decided that Viscount Cecil and Mr. Bridgeman, who had returned to London to report on the conference, will return to Geneva almost immediately to resume their labors and that they will return with the Cabinet's full approval of the line they have taken hitherto.

Little real apprehension had been expressed here that the conference would collapse. This fear was allayed by the fact that preparations for Premier Baldwin's departure for Canada with the Prince of Wales tomorrow have continued to go forward but it was thought that difficulties might arise within the Cabinet ranks.

GOVERNMENT
Today's session was held in the Premier's room in the House of Commons. Premier Baldwin presiding and Sir Austen Chamberlain, Foreign Secretary, the Earl of Balfour, Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and a majority of the Cabinet being present. Despite the length of the sitting, it is understood that discussion still was unfinished when the meeting broke up.

No official communique was issued but it was stated authoritatively that the Cabinet approves the attitude of the delegation and will return to Geneva. It is understood, however, that further discussions of details are required and that the ministers will confer over the weekend with experts of the Committee of Imperial Defense.

AMERICAN STAND FIRM ON CRUISER ARMS
GENEVA, July 22. (Exclusive)—The American delegation to the naval limitation conference meeting in Geneva today determined that it would not commit itself concerning the size and armament of future American second-class cruisers and so far as can be learned will defend to the end its contention of right to build these ships large enough to carry batteries of eight-inch guns. There are clear indications here that the Washington government strongly is supporting the American delegation on this point.

American spokesmen declare that it is probable that during the ten-year life of the projected treaty, the United States will not build up to the existing strength of the British navy and will not want to build all of its secondary cruisers large enough to mount eight-inch guns. But they contend, the United States cannot possibly abandon its right to do the latter, if it believes that naval needs justify such a type of construction.

To this contention, the British reply that Great Britain must have the same number of powerful armored ships as the United States and declares that by insisting on liberty of choice, the United States really is imposing her will on England. The Americans on the other hand maintain that it is Great Britain that seeks to impose its will on the United States while hand retaining the right to build the type of warship best suited to British requirements.

COOLIDGE PLEADED BY ABILITY OF ENVOYS
RAPID CITY (S. D.) July 22. (Exclusive)—President Coolidge has been impressed by the ability and discretion with which the envoys of the American delegation to the Geneva naval armament conference have set forth the position of the United States.

He considers that the work of Ambassador Gilson, who headed the delegation, and Admiral Jones has been especially able.

Experts Groom Courtney Radio So He Can Start

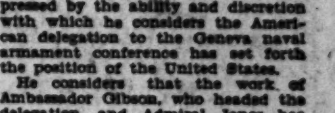

CALSHOT NAVAL BASE (Eng.) July 22. (Exclusive)—Determined there shall be no further radio trouble to delay the departure of Capt. Frank T. Courtney in his whale on the hop to New York the Marconi experts returned here today from London prepared to work all night on the wireless if necessary.

The adjustments are not expected to take long and Capt. Courtney hopes to be in readiness to take off on the first westward flight across the Atlantic the instant the weather permits.

Weather conditions today were reported unfavorable with indications, however, of a change within forty-eight hours.

SMOKING RIGHTS GIVEN WOMEN

Marine Corps Employees May Enjoy Puff at Decks if They So Desire

WASHINGTON, July 22.—(AP)—The right to smoke cigarettes while sitting at their desks has been extended to women employees of the Marine Corps.

but not a single one was observed exercising the new privilege.

For some time it has been an open secret that some of Uncle Sam's women employees occasionally slip away from their desks to enjoy a secret puff.

and Brig.-Gen. Lane, adjutant inspector of the Marine Corps, after declaring he would rather have employees smoke in the open than in secret, posted an order:

"Women in this office may smoke at their desks if they want to."

WOMEN RENAME NATIONAL CHIEF

Mrs. Phillips Again Chosen at Oakland Meeting

Action Affects Question of Coast Club's Return

Other Officers, Except One, Likewise Re-elected

OAKLAND, July 22.—(Exclusive)—Bearing out previous expectations, the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs today re-elected Lena Madeline Phillips of New York president, thereby making the return of the withdrawn California club to the national fold a question to be determined at the State convention in September.

All present officers were returned to their positions with the exception of one, who was not a candidate for re-election.

Those named, in addition to Mrs. Phillips, are:

Elizabeth Fitzgerald, Salt Lake City, first vice-president; Elizabeth Bernard, Tampa, Fla., second vice-president; Frances E. Plath, Davenport, Iowa, recording secretary; Dr. Bertha M. Maxwell, Williamsport, Pa., corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Florence H. Stone, New Orleans, treasurer.

LONGWORTH EN ROUTE TO LOS ANGELES

Speaker on Tour of West Coast for Vacation Silent About Political Issues

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22.—(AP)—Speaker Nicholas Longworth of the House of Representatives arrived here today from Portland, Ore., on what he described as "merely a vacation tour with the secondary purpose of getting first-hand impressions."

He declined to discuss anything political, beyond the following comment: "Everything points to fine crops and good prices for them so far as country districts are concerned and in the cities industrial conditions generally are splendid. The people seem well satisfied everywhere."

Representative Morris Grumpecker and Albert E. Carter joined the Longworth party at Oakland, and the speaker and his companions, Henry B. Spencer, president of the Fruit Growers' Express and a director of the Great Northern Railroad, were greeted in San Francisco by Representative Florence Kahn, and Chamber of Commerce officials.

Longworth planned to remain here a day, and so Sunday or Monday to Los Angeles.

Hibernians Toss Bricks at Klan and Other Foes

BUFFALO (N. Y.) July 22.—(AP)—The Ancient Order of Hibernians at its annual national convention here today adopted resolutions opposing the Ku Klux Klan as a "menace to the peace of the nation."

The convention also adopted a resolution advocating a public and official inquiry into the conduct of various asserted alien "propaganda organizations."

The resolutions were adopted by a vote of 100 to 10, and were described as "a declaration of war" against the Klan and other enemies of the Hibernians.

HAWAII DEFENSE CALLED SECURE

Importance of Hop to Island Told by Summerall

Maitland and Hegenberger Lauded at Dinner

Pacific Protection by Air Bombers Assured

WASHINGTON, July 22.—(AP)—Vast military importance involving control of the Pacific, attaches to the successful flight of the army aviators, Maitland and Hegenberger, from California to Hawaii.

This was disclosed by Maj.-Gen. Summerall, chief of the army General Staff, in an address last night at a dinner in honor of the young lieutenants given by the National Aeronautical Association.

From a military point of view, considering the necessities of the defense in the Pacific, Gen. Summerall said, "their accomplishment is the most vital since the construction of the Panama Canal."

The army chief of staff declared that the long journey, recognized that the nation holding the Hawaiian Islands has the military key to the Pacific, controlling the eastern portion of that vast ocean as well as the Western coast of the United States.

The successful negotiation of the vast stretch of sea from California to Hawaii by air, he added, had simplified the matter of the defense of the islands as well as the other Pacific possessions of the United States.

"We can imagine clouds of airplanes taking off from California and in a few hours landing in the Hawaiian Islands," the general said.

He added that these planes would thus augment the island force and furnish a great air defense.

Military experts long have sought for means of shortening the distance to the mid-Pacific possessions by the use of the airplane and they have been working on the problem steadily for more than a half-dozen years.

They realize that much work remains to be done in the development of the airplane for military purposes, but are convinced that it will be entirely successful.

While only a limited number of planes can be maintained on the islands, bombs and ammunition in unlimited quantities for their use in case of hostilities are stored there and with the outbreak of hostilities it would be possible to send out great fleets of large bombers from the Pacific Coast.

DUCK CLUBS HARD HIT ON WATER USE

State Announces Supply for Ponds May be Cut Off at Any Time

SACRAMENTO, July 22.—(AP)—Dealing a severe blow to commercial duck clubs which in the past have been using large quantities of water for flooding their ponds in preparation for the fall shooting, the State Division of Water Rights today announced a policy of regulating or stopping the flooding in time of extreme need, or of substituting the diversion to any other use deemed more beneficial to the general public.

This regulation of whether the rights to the water were acquired at any time subsequent to the granting of the duck pond permits.

The policy was announced in connection with the issuance of four permits to the Sutter Basin Improvement Company for the diversion of fifty-three cubic feet of water from the Sutter by-pass and adjoining drainage sloughs for the shooting of large duck ponds in Sutter county.

The permits are so worded that any time can stop the diversion and make the water available for almost any other use. These restrictions are:

No right to water shall be acquired for the purpose authorized under the permits which shall authorize use to the disadvantage of any right which may subsequently be acquired for use for domestic, irrigation, agricultural, municipal, power, industrial, mining or any other more beneficial purpose.

The permits are issued subject to the express condition that diversion to use for the purpose herein authorized may be regulated or stopped by the Division of Water Rights as by it deemed necessary to prevent interference with rights heretofore or hereafter acquired under applications for more beneficial purposes.

Town in Danger as Box Factory in North Burns

MONTAGUE (Cal.) July 22.—(AP)—The Algoma Lumber Company box factory was destroyed last night by fire of undetermined origin with an estimated loss of more than $50,000.

The entire town of Montague was threatened by sparks driven by a stiff breeze.

Volunteer fighters and the town's fire department succeeded in saving the town and prevented the spread of the fire to the factory lumber yard.

The mill had been inactive for several months and preparations were being made to open it within the next two months. The Algoma company has its headquarters at Algoma, Klamath county, Oregon.

Three Projects Will Be Mapped by Army Airmen

SAN ANTONIO (Tex.) July 22.—(AP)—An aerial map of three different projects in Texas and California, is to be made at an early date by the first photo section, Second Division.

The projects include an area 200 miles long and five miles wide on each side of the Rio Grande from Roma to the mouth of the Pecos River, a forty-by-five-mile area covering the channel of the Tia Juana River, and the route of the proposed all-American canal from the Colorado River to the Imperial Valley of California.

Sgt. Carl B. Dahlgen will make the aerial pictures.

INDIANS HAIL STONE CHIEF

Yosemite, July 22.—(Exclusive)—Local redmen believe a stone-faced spirit has returned to the valley to perpetuate the memory of Chief Tenaya, the last of the Yosemite rulers.

To substantiate their assertion, they point out the stone face of an Indian, seventy-five feet above the ground, unknowingly worked out by some stone masons in placing the granite trimming of the Ahwahnee, Yosemite's new hotel. This perfect stone picture.

IMPORTANT about AWNINGS

ALL awnings may keep out the sun. But not all awnings have beautiful patterns. And not all beautiful patterns will produce a pleasing effect on your particular home. And not all awning men have the experience necessary to insure you an artistic installation.

Bandit Captured After Threat to Blow Up Bank
SHAWNEE (Okla.) July 22.—(AP)—Threatening to blow up the Tecumseh National Bank with a can of what he said was nitroglycerin, an unidentified man today forced a clerk to hand over $1500.
The man was captured as he left the building by J. L. Rosebush, president, and Leroy Cooper, assistant county attorney.

BRITISH CABINET SPLIT REVEALED

Disclosure Follows Change in Baldwin Plans

Balfour Selection as Acting Prime Minister Upset

Sir Austen Chamberlain to Occupy Post Instead

LONDON, July 22. (Exclusive)—An interesting revelation has been made of a division of the Cabinet made by the last-moment change in the arrangements for carrying on the government during Prime Minister Baldwin's absence on his Canadian trip, beginning tomorrow.

It was announced yesterday that Lord Balfour will be in charge of the government during the Prime Minister's absence, but today this was withdrawn and an official statement was issued that Sir Austen Chamberlain, Foreign Secretary, will be acting Prime Minister, while Winston Churchill will be leader in the House of Commons.

The story behind the sudden change is that Mr. Baldwin is anxious to avoid trouble between Sir Austen and Mr. Churchill, who are rivals for the succession to him as leader of the Tory party. He asked Lord Balfour to take charge and Lord Balfour accepted.

FOLLOWERS PROTEST

As it transpired, however, neither Mr. Churchill nor Sir Austen was pleased and the followers of both protested violently. Mr. Baldwin then took courage and designated Sir Austen, who is with him leader of the modern party, while Mr. Churchill has become the idol of the die-hards.

Sir Austen is entitled by seniority to the post and the succession, as he withdrew in favor of former Prime Minister Bonar Law when he was deposed by the late Lord Long, then Mr. Walter Long.

REORGANIZATION TALK

There is much talk about a reorganization of the Cabinet. It is believed the Prime Minister is anxious to get rid of some of the die-hards who have committed him recently to courses in which he does not believe. It is rumored that Lord Curzon, Lord Chamberlain, Home Secretary, is said to be slated to go altogether, but Mr. Churchill is a more difficult problem, as he is a powerful office because he is so dangerous a critic outside the government, but it is said he will be removed from the chancellery, where he has been unsuccessful, to some other post.

Cuba Modifies Decree Barring Women Visitors

HAVANA, July 22. (AP)—Regulations preventing women from visiting Cuba without permission of their husbands have been modified by President Machado so far as Americans are concerned.

A stir was created when Dr. Santiago Chamara, Commissioner of Immigration, recently announced that under the terms of the original decree women who did not have proper papers from their husbands would not be permitted to enter the country. The decree as originally framed was aimed at undesirable foreign women who were endeavoring to make a tour of the island at the time it had never been used against an American until last week when it was sent against Mrs. Anne Joy. She was locked in a detention camp.

As a consequence of the action, a group of transport agents and a tour commission succeeded in drawing orders from the Secretary of the Treasury that discretion be used in invoking the decree and a memorandum was issued by President Machado guaranteeing American citizens every facility within reason for landing here.

Ruling Clears State's Realty License Scope

SACRAMENTO, July 22. (AP)—California's realty law, which requires that all real estate brokers be licensed, and sell large parcels of property to home builders need not procure a State real estate broker's license, so long as they do not employ assistants, Attorney General Webb has informed State Real Estate Commissioner Barnum. The holding of the Attorney General is a relief to many real estate operators, and requires a license as well as license for his assistants.

The Attorney General also has ruled that when a license is issued to an individual or corporation, for use by a designated official or a partnership, in the name of one of the partners, after the examination fee has been paid, the license is not chargeable to any other member or employee of the firm. The only fee required of the balance of the firm is the usual small license charge.

New President of Key System Named in North

SAN FRANCISCO, July 22. (Exclusive)—Lester S. Ready, president of the Key System Transit Company, resigned his position at a meeting of the board of directors today and assumed a newly created position of vice-chairman of the board.

A. J. Lundberg, a partner in the firm of J. Barth & Co., was selected president. The change becomes effective at once. Lundberg and Gustav Epstein, another partner of J. Barth & Co., were elected directors of the transit company in April.

The move was explained as a step by the brokerage house to assume control of the railroad in which it is involved. The change has been in effect for several years as majority stockholder. Ready, who formerly was chief engineer for the Railroad Commission, was elected December 16, 1926, to the position of president, and assumed office on the first of the year. C. O. Miller, former president, was elected to a newly created position of chairman of the board at that time.

"Times" Daily Short Story A CELL IN ETRURIA

By Frank Lillie Pollock

I WATCHED Kernahan as he slept profoundly, his head on the back of the chair, where it had fallen when he stopped eating and talking. Among the litter on the studio table were the remains of the lunch I had rummaged together for him. He was damp, dragged, shabby, and his face told tales of hard straits, but at that moment Maurice Kernahan seemed to my dazed eyes a very great man.

For I was still under the enchantment of the story he had told me—the plot of his novel, "The Fountain of Youth," which was to be a masterpiece. It would be nothing less, I was certain, if I was not over-intoxicated by the skill with which he had unwound the thread of his tale, from its brilliant beginning to its rounded end, often reciting whole passages, for he always elaborated his material very fully in his mind before he touched paper.

Not a word of the book was written, but from his previous work I knew how it would come out—strong and smooth as silk, and rich with the color of his exuberant Celtic fancy. The setting was unreal: the Etruria of the plot was as vague as the Forest of Arden, but there were living passions in it, and human problems, and a vein of keen irony that no one could shut out.

Besides, it would just hit the popular taste of the moment, though I was so charmed by the fire and beauty of the story that this last consideration scarcely occurred to me at the time.

Meanwhile the man who had devised all this slept soundly in my chair, without a dollar in his pockets. The always active pendulum of his fortunes hung around the little studio in this, and he had told me. He had even pawned his typewriter. He had sold the typewriter, I had heard him sitting at the top of my stairs in a kind of collapse.

Kernahan needed quiet and freedom from anxiety to do his best work. He had seldom had them, and that was why he had done nothing but the witty and graceful magazine trifles by which he was slightly known. And the worst of it was that he could not help him; I was struggling in the shoals of fraters "you see." But I was so much excited over his inspiration that I presently went to him to talk about it.

"When are you going to write it?" I demanded.

"When? Now. The question is where," he returned.

"You know this joint is always open to you," I said.

"No, I won't let you feed me, old fellow. There's three or four months' work in this, and you're carrying all the ballast you need, I know."

"What a pity a man can't realize on an idea!" I groaned.

"Why, so he can. There are several publishers who would grubstake the while I write the book. If I told them my plot, but then they'd charge me about ten thousand per cent interest on their advance when it came to desist for the manuscript. No, I want to walk in with the book all finished and demand fifteen per cent royalty on the retail price, for it's worth it." He laughed loudly. "You see I appreciate a good thing when I see it."

"Oh, you're right to be enthusiastic. But couldn't you do newspaper work while you were writing it?"

"I couldn't write that story unless I was dead to the world, shut away in some cloister where I wouldn't be worried about money, and where nobody would speak unless I spoke to them. I wonder there is such a place anywhere! Oh, yes, I forgot the most essential requisite—where I could live for nothing!—where I could live for nothing!"

He leaned forward on the table, caught sight of something on the spread newspapers, and pushed aside the book to read it. He read it carefully, began to laugh, cut the paragraph out, and put it in his pocket.

"What is it?" I inquired.

"He got up and took his hat. In his eyes was a sparkle which I knew always meant some reckless impulse. 'You stay here tonight, you know. Hold on, where are you going?'"

But he was already out and going down the stairs three steps at a time. I ran after him; but I heard the street-door slam when I was halfway down the four flights. I went out

Se Da Gran Importancia a los Vuelos de California a Hawaii

WASHINGTON, July 22.—Se concede gran importancia militar, que entraña nada menos que el dominio del Pacífico, al feliz vuelo de los aviones militares Mailand y Hegenberger de California a Hawaii. Dato es lo que ha revelado el general de división Sumnerall, jefe del estado mayor general del ejército, en un discurso que pronunció anoche con motivo de la comida ofrecida en honor de los jóvenes tenientes por la Sociedad de Aviación Nacional.

"Desde el punto de vista militar, y tomando en cuenta las necesidades de nuestra defensa en el Pacífico," dijo el general Sumnerall, "han dado estos oficiales el paso de más vital importancia desde la construcción del canal de Panamá."

Declaró el jefe del estado mayor del ejército que desde hace mucho tiempo se ha reconocido que la nación que domine en las islas Hawai tendrá la llave militar del Pacífico, pues ejercerá su poder tanto en la porción oriental de ese vasto océano como en la costa occidental de los Estados Unidos.

COAST RAIL SCHEDULES PRESCRIBED

Federal Commission Puts Down Strict Rulings for Classified Freight

WASHINGTON, July 22. (AP)—In adjusting the Northern and Southern Pacific Coast rail rates yesterday, the Interstate Commerce Commission made definite findings for charges on classified freight.

Schedules laid down for class rates between San Francisco and Portland, Or., fixed a charge of 80 cents per 100 pounds for first-class freight; 64.5 cents for second, third and fourth-class shipments and 44 cents for fifth-class shipments.

The railroads were ordered to adhere strictly to the scale.

As to traffic moving on commodity freight rates, however, which includes a variety of material such as canned goods, vegetable oils, machinery, iron and steel, sugar, beverages, metals and building materials, the railroads were given considerable discretion. They were authorized to fix rates on these commodities moving north or south at a point "not less than 10 cents per 100 pounds higher than rates contemporaneously maintained on like traffic by standard steamer lines operating between the same ports."

The 10-cent limitation further was limited by the ruling that no rates from San Francisco to Portland lower than 25 cents per 100 pounds should be fixed by railroads and no rates between Los Angeles and Portland lower than 25 cents per 100 pounds.

Between San Francisco and Seattle a minimum commodity rate of 45 cents was prescribed and between Los Angeles and Seattle the minimum is 61 cents, the same provision specifying that railroads also must keep Seattle rates at least 10 cents above steamer rates to the same points.

MEET INDORSES MONROE TENET

Pan-American Labor Congress Limits Approval

Doctrine Lauded, Application Given Censure

President Green in Ringing Defense of Dogma

WASHINGTON, July 22. (Ex-clusive)—Resolutions indorsing the Monroe Doctrine, but deploring the "strained interpretations" under which it has "time and again been used to the detriment of the rights and liberties of weaker nations," were adopted late this afternoon by the Pan-American Labor Congress.

The action of the Congress came as a climax to a turbulent three-hour session in which President William Green of the American Federation of Labor, protesting sternly rebuked radical delegates who attacked the Doctrine and reminded them that only the Monroe Doctrine had saved Latin America from occupation by some "rapacious European power."

VENEZUELAN DISSENTS The only dissenting vote against the resolution as finally adopted was cast by Ricardo Martinez, a delegate from Venezuela, who charged in a bitter speech that the resolutions were a compromise for another sponsored by the delegates from Venezuela, Nicaragua and Santo Domingo.

Martinez's original resolution denounced "American imperialism as set forth by President Coolidge when he said the person and property of a citizen are part of the national domain of the nation, even when abroad," declared the Monroe Doctrine to be the instrument for American imperialism, advocated the withdrawal of American forces wherever they are stationed in Latin America and demanded immediate independence for Porto Rico.

President Green declared that the Monroe Doctrine is a "dead and unalterable policy of the United States" and asserted that he could excuse the "intemperate remarks" of Martinez only on the ground that the latter is "young and will learn eventually through experience."

GREEN LAUDS DOCTRINE "The Monroe Doctrine," declared President Green, "an almost universally approved policy of this government, will never be renounced. Our people believe in the Monroe Doctrine. Our people are against any foot of soil on the American continent coming into the possession of any European nation or government. It was that spirit which inspired a President of the United States some years ago to tell Great Britain that if she attempted to land troops in Venezuela because of a boundary dispute the government of the United States would oppose Great Britain, even if that opposition meant resort to arms."

When Mr. Green had concluded, Salomon De la Silva, delegate from Nicaragua, whose resolution in modified form demanding an American withdrawal of American marines from his country was adopted, indorsed the Monroe Doctrine in qualified terms and asserted that like "a surgeon's knife, which may be used for murder rather than for the alleviation of suffering, the Monroe Doctrine may be so applied."

Supervisors Not Allowed to Pay Fair Deficit

SACRAMENTO, July 22. (P)—A claim for $15,000, representing the deficit in the San Joaquin County Fair Association for 1925 and 1926, cannot be allowed by the Board of Supervisors, the Third District Court of Appeal held today.

The ruling was made in upholding the decision of the Superior Court of San Joaquin county in granting an injunction to E. A. diowe to restrain County Auditor Mazy from paying the claim approved by the Supervisors.

The Appellate Court said the Board of Supervisors is not authorized to delegate to the association the right to perform acts which created the deficit and make the county liable.

ESPEE PURCHASE BATTLED

Interstate Commission Hears Arguments on Plan to Buy California Traction Company

WASHINGTON, July 22. (P)—A contested project of the Southern Pacific Railroad to purchase the Central California Traction Company, operating in the Sacramento Valley, was brought before the Interstate Commerce Commission today for final argument. A. L. Whittle, counsel for the Southern Pacific, explained that his railroad intends to acquire the traction line on payment of $2,500,000 and that the tracks thus obtained will be utilized in the establishment of a second main line by Southern Pacific. He estimated that the Southern Pacific could save $38,000 per year in operating expenses by such use of the traction facilities. The figures were challenged by Elmer J. Westlake, counsel for the Atchafalaya, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad, which desires to participate in the purchase of the traction company or to make the purchase on its own account.

SAVING DENIED The real motive of the Southern Pacific in seeking the traction company, Westlake said, is to eliminate the possibility of the Santa Fe competing in the Sacramento territory. He denied that the Southern Pacific could make any substantial operating savings by use of the line, but declared that the Southern Pacific could prevent the Santa Fe from obtaining business.

Both Whittle and Westlake agreed that the operation of the traction line on an independent basis is unprofitable. Herbert Fleischacker of San Francisco, speaking for himself and other bond-holders of the traction company, stressed this point, saying that the delay since 1925 in obtaining the sale of the road had cost the bond-holders between $200,000 and $300,000 in lost interest and operating deficits. He urged the commission to expedite a decision in the matter to allow the situation to be cleared up.

PURPOSE GIVEN Whittle estimated that the Southern Pacific would have to spend approximately as much for construction of the road as the Santa Fe.

TRAINING CAMP SETS RECORDS

Review to Close Del Monte Activities Today

Session Most Successful in History of State

Rifle Match Team Chosen for Camp Perry Event

CAMP DEL MONTE, July 22. (P)—A regiment of 1348 young Californians, containing hundreds of potential officers of the Army of the United States as organized reserve officers, today is making preparations to close the most successful Citizens' Military Training Camp ever held in the State.

Maj.-Gen. John L. Hines, recently chief of staff of the Army and now commanding general of the Ninth Corps Area, will arrive tomorrow morning to review the young men on the closing day of the thirty day camp. Lieut.-Gov. Fitts, reserve officer and veteran of the Argonne, will represent the State of California in the review tomorrow afternoon.

This year's camp has been the most successful ever held here, said Col. William J. O'Loughlin, training officer and assistant to Col. Ernest V. Smith, camp commander. "More young men, potential officers of the Army of the United States, will be graduated this year than ever before. The caliber of the men, too, is much higher than ever."

Selection of the Del Monte camp team to compete in the national rifle matches at Camp Perry was announced as follows:

Roman J. Peisinger, Yucaipa; Frank I. King, Altadena; Lloyd McRagan, San Francisco; Hugh P. Nelson, Pasadena, and Ward H. Hanes, San Francisco. The next four ranking marksmen named as alternates are Charles S. Cobb, Pasadena; William A. McCracken, Santa Barbara; Johnnie Jan, Sacramento, and Arthur H. Owen, Petaluma.

BEACH OIL WELL BAR SUSTAINED

Mineral Land Leasing Law Upheld by Atty.-Gen. Webb in Huntington Case

SACRAMENTO, July 22. (P)—Upholding the constitutionality of the State mineral land leasing law, Atty.-Gen. Webb today sustained the action of Surveyor General Kingsbury in denying oil exploitation permits to a company seeking to develop wells on the beach at Huntington Beach.

Kingsbury denied the application because the tide land lay within a mile of the boundary of an incorporated city, this land being closed to leasing under the statute.

Those seeking the permit in turn appealed to the board of control for a review, declaring the leasing act was unconstitutional because the body of the statute contained provisions not referred to in the title. These provisions were found by Webb to be unconstitutional.

PRESBYTERIANS FIGHT DIVORCE

Church Marriages Favored as Possible Deterrent

Oregon Synod Decides Films at Services Futile

Sanction for Secular Groups in Fold Opposed

EUGENE (Or.) July 22. (P)—Expressing grave concern over the evident increase in the number of divorces in the West, the Oregon Presbyterian Synod, in session here, suggested that wherever possible ministers urge the celebration of a church service in marriage in an attempt to counteract the "non-Christian attitude" which is held responsible for the increasing divorce rate.

It was agreed by the synod that most divorces occur in non-Christian homes. The added impressiveness and sanctity of a church service should lend itself, the synod believes, toward keeping the bride and bridegroom together.

Rev. Arthur Lee Odell, leading the discussion as pastor of the Highland Park Church at Los Angeles, declared he finds it impossible to marry more than one out of four couples that come to him, because at least one of the pair has been divorced on grounds not recognized by the Presbyterian Church.

The synod frowned on secular controlled organizations within the church, such as Boy Scout groups fostered by churches. It also was agreed that the plan of showing motion pictures in the churches in an attempt to check the decrease in Sunday evening attendance has proved unsatisfactory.

"David Belasco's advice impressed me"

Walter J. Leather is telling Joyce Todd as they start for an all-day motor jaunt through the Berkshires.

David Belasco, dean of the American Theatre, writes:

"The voice is to the actor what the chisel is to the sculptor. He must beware of dulling its qualities. Naturally I am vitally concerned about the voices of my players, so I always advise the one cigarette that I discovered many years ago that does not impair control of the subtlest vocal shadings or cause huskiness or harshness. I mean the 'Lucky Strike.' It is the player's best friend."

David Belasco.

You, too, will find that Lucky Strikes are mild and mellow—the finest cigarettes you ever smoked, made of the finest Turkish and domestic tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"It's toasted"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.

On Reflected Glory

New minister to Swedish Lena: Will you give me your address so I can call upon you?
Swedish Lena: To hell I can get a feller.
M. Lytle, 115 South Olive street.

Shopper: What colors have you in window blind?
Clerk: Window blinds are all shades, ma'am.
Mrs. John Nicholas, box 351, Globe, Ariz.

"My wife has run away with a man in my car."
"That's too bad! Was it an expensive car?"
Phil Berman, 8865 Estrella.

On a tombstone in an old cemetery: Here lies Jonathan Steele, good and upright citizen; weighed 250 pounds. Open wide ye golden gates. Lila Cooper, 5802 Marathon.

Little boy to policeman: Are you a public servant?
Officer: Yes.
Boy: Please mind my kid brother while I play ball then.
Mrs. D. D. Love, 1425 West Fourth street.

Three-year-old child seeing horses being transferred in a trailer exclaimed: Oh, mama, the horses are riding in the back seat.
Mrs. E. M. Mather, Route 1, box 148A, Fullerton, Calif.

YOU can always tell a really small guy by his eagerness to shine in reflected glory. If he misses no chance to talk familiarity of acquaintances who have done things you can bet he hasn't done many himself. And if he first-comes "em, and praises 'em half-condescendingly, grab all such bets you can, even if you have to put up 100 to 1.

Lot of us seem to think boasting the fact that twenty years ago we were in the same school class with J. P. Oyle, the magnate, establishes us in the same class today. But what our auditors think is his: "Gosh! This ratty fellow had as good a start as the great Oyle did, yet look at him now!"

Still more of us try to appear superior by affectionately knitting celebrities we know. "Irvin Sinclair?" we chorle. "Sure, I know Mr. Oyle. Glad his books are goin' so strong now, but—well, between us, it's all pure luck and advertising. Real genius about Irvin, all right—but his press agent's got it."

The shrimp who can't get to first base always has been a shark at criticizing the hard-hitter's base running, and explaining how lucky he is when he scores.

Yes, Palomine, reflected or deflected glory never makes you shine. It only shows up clearly what an awful shine you already are.

Judge Agrees Wife Doesn't Live in Rome

The rule of court in the case of a Roman is "cook, wash, and keep still." Judge Falk yesterday ruled that the wife of a Roman, who is a citizen of the United States, does not live in Rome. The judge's decision was based on the fact that the wife was a native-born American citizen and that she was not a resident of Rome. The case was brought before the court by the husband, who claimed that his wife was a resident of Rome and that she was entitled to the benefits of the Roman citizenship. The judge, however, ruled that the wife was not a resident of Rome and that she was not entitled to the benefits of the Roman citizenship.

GIRLHOOD TO MOTHERHOOD

Iowa Woman Found Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Always Helped Her. Vinton, Iowa, July 22.—When a woman is a mother, she knows the value of a good medicine. Mrs. J. W. Smith, of Vinton, Iowa, is a good example of this. She has been a mother for over thirty years and has always found that Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped her in every way. She has been able to keep her children healthy and happy, and she has been able to keep her own health in good condition. She has been a great help to her husband and to her children, and she has been a great help to her community. She has been a great help to her country, and she has been a great help to the world.

AQUEDUCT JURY ORDERS RECESS

Inquiry in Blasts Will be Resumed August 9. Suspected Maj. Watson Gets No Chance to Testify. Hession Says it Might Upset Contra Costa Trial. BY CHESTER G. HANSON. "Times" Staff Correspondent. INDEPENDENCE, July 22.—The jury investigating the Los Angeles Aqueduct dynamite blasts today suddenly took a recess until August 9. No indictment was returned and no statement for the public came from the jury. The jury recessed without calling before it Maj. Percy Watson, under indictment in Contra Costa county for illegal possession of explosives. The major, an alert individual of very build, sat in court today waiting to be called, having appeared voluntarily when he heard that a subpoena had been issued for him last night. He had just come from his ranch on the outskirts of town and was clad in faded blue overalls and farmer's straw hat.

Meteorologist Promises High Temperatures for Several More Days. Los Angeles and Southern California can look for typically summer weather for the next few days, according to Col. H. B. Hersey, government meteorologist. Yesterday's temperature reached a maximum of 88 deg. at 1 o'clock. The lowest point of the day was recorded at 6 a.m., when the mercury dropped to 66. High humidity was recorded during the day with the peak of 44 per cent being reached at 3 p.m. The present warm weather is a result of a shifting of high pressure from the east toward the coast, Col. Hersey said. Today's forecast is for continued warm weather with an overcast sky, which may bring lower temperature and humidity.

FORUM IN HANDS OF PANTAGES

West Pico Theater Added to Magnate's Circuit on Lease and Purchase Option. Alexander Pantages yesterday announced that he had taken over the Forum Theater at 4050 West Pico street on a lease and purchase option. The theater was erected more than four years ago by the B. & H. Circuit. It was leased by Pantages from the B. & H. Circuit. The theater, it was stated, will be operated as a first-run house for the more elaborate feature films. A number of unique entertainment features also are planned for it. Wrecked Ships and Grace Flight Crew

Upper left—Ernest Smith's wrecked monoplane Spirit of Oakland. Upper right—Richard Grace's wrecked monoplane on island of Kauai, the 4th inst., from which the pilot miraculously escaped death after getting off to a good start on his attempted flight from Hawaii to the mainland. Below—Grace flight crew: Carl Spangenberg, mechanic; Pilot Grace and Lieut. Eiten B. Koger, project manager, taken on Kauai two days before the start and subsequent crash. Tokio will be his goal September 8, next, when Richard V. Grace, local aviator, hopes of a local field alone in an attempt to span the 6000 miles of sea to Asia. Grace, who returned from Hawaii yesterday aboard the liner City of Honolulu following the crash of his plane when he attempted to hop off for the mainland from the island of Kauai, announced that his Los Angeles-to-Tokyo plane already is being built. The youthful flyer nonchalantly explained that his plane, which has no radio, no navigator and that he even will discard a parachute to save weight. "I am not even going to carry a life belt," he said with a shrug of his shoulders, "because, if a fellow drops out there, why, what's the difference?"

CALIFORNIA COLLECTION GAINS CITED

Delegates to Mercantile Agencies Convention Told of Satisfactory Conditions. Collections have been 30 per cent better in California during the past six months than in any similar period in many years, Frederick Ray, Los Angeles, told 137 delegates attending the convention of the California Association of Mercantile Agencies and executive officers of the Pacific Coast Association of Collection Agencies at the Alexandria yesterday. Los Angeles has the earliest and best collections of any city in the United States, another speaker told the convention. The improvement of collections and the enviable record of Los Angeles in this regard are indicative of the splendid business conditions and prosperity general along the Pacific Coast and particularly in California, he was pointed out. Numerous three-minute talks on technical subjects of interest to members of the association were made.

LARGE LIST FOR POLICE BOARD JOB

Many Persons Suggested to Mayor for Positions of Birnbaum and Foss. With two vacancies to fill on the Board of Police Commissioners, Mayor Cryer is giving consideration to a number of names of men and women suggested for the appointments. The City Council refused the Mayor's re-appointment of Thomas Foss to the Police Commission, and the names suggested to replace him are: Birnbaum, resigned, though, technically, his resignation has not yet been accepted formally by the Mayor, who asked for it. Birnbaum, however, is no longer a commissioner and has declined to attend any board meetings since he was asked to resign. Among the names suggested to replace Foss are: Birnbaum, resigned, though, technically, his resignation has not yet been accepted formally by the Mayor, who asked for it. QUARANTINE RELEASE FOLLOWED BY ARREST

Released from a diphtheria quarantine placed on his home several weeks ago, Victor Bruel, druggist, 2410 Raymond avenue, was arrested immediately yesterday by Federal narcotics officers and placed in jail. He is charged with selling narcotics without keeping the required records. It also was announced by the Bureau of Power and Light. The shock knocked Wiley from the pole and this undoubtedly saved his life. Hagaman received the full force of the current for some seconds and technicians in the way to the receiving hospital. Wiley was treated for burns of the hands and other minor injuries.

FILM DIRECTORS PLEDGE AD Co-operation in Task of Cutting Production Costs

Promised at Meeting With Producers. A definite pledge to co-operate to the fullest extent in the task of slashing film production costs was forthcoming from film directors last night as they met again with the producers for a further exchange of suggestions and ideas. The pledge was in the form of a resolution summarizing the attitude of the directors, as expressed at the first meeting with the producers, where the former frankly and pointedly discussed the elements which had caused production costs to mount higher and higher. Last night's conference at the Billman was to give the producers an opportunity to answer the directors, but the latter presented their pledge of co-operation in order to clarify the situation. The resolution pointed out that the directors welcomed the spirit which "prompted the producers to take up the various points made at the conference by actors, writers, technicians and directors and the suggestions toward economy are receiving the most serious consideration from the film executives. more of directors and some dozen producers attended the conference last night. It was stated that the further the industry is conducted between the producers and the representatives of the other branches of the industry, the more the general meeting of the academy next Thursday night. "Emmie has got sense an' she'd make a good mother if she wasn't so busy trin' to make other folks be good."

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

THE new baby King of Romania... Right now he is about as important and influential a monarch as his father ever was. In the drama of world diplomacy Rumania is kicked around like an alley cat by the great powers. And the King is kicked around by the politicians of his own country. His job consists of keeping the specks of the royal scepter.

MISS VAN BUREN

The sane and sensible Queen of Holland realizes the perils of the queen business. She is sending her daughter—the heiress to the throne—to college. And she is taking good care that she shall be known there—not as a royal princess—but as plain Miss Elizabeth Van Buren. And, at that, the throne of Holland is about the most secure of any in the world.

TEXAS STEER

These Texas steers were recruited to movie scenario writers, but they didn't pack enough heat to feed the family cat. At that, they probably were the original cattle from which all others were developed. The primal he-cow was not as much interested in his mating average as in a good pair of horns to keep the wolves at a polite distance.

The Christian Science Parent Church
THE CHURCH OF THE TRANSFORMING COVENANT
This Church, organized under the leadership of Annie C. Bill, has for its mission the introduction and establishment in world consciousness of the Science of organization as taught by Mary Baker Eddy. It advances true
Christian Science; in no way disrupts it nor rejects a single fact in Mrs.
Eddy's teachings; immeasurably increasing appreciation of her life work; never distracting from her achievements. It is demonstrating her discovery of the great system of mental power, the common consent of the governed to spiritual leadership, which will change the whole of human consciousness from a pathway of death unto a living unfoldment of Life.

YOUR BABY and MINE

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope, forwarded in this office, will bring a personal reply.

Mrs. L.F.G. writes: My baby is two years old now and about a month ago I took his bottle away and since then I have had a terrible time to put him to bed. Today I won but I had to bribe him with a cracker. Is that spoiling him?

He is afraid to go into a dark room alone. When someone comes up on the porch, or the doorbell rings he almost has hysterics. Neither his father nor I has ever frightened him in any way or at any time, but I'll admit he might have inherited it from me. I have practically overcome my cowardice for his sake.

Answer: There is always a trouble when a child who has had a bottle for two years is deprived of it, that is why it is so much more sensible to get him used to a cup earlier in his life. Now that that error cannot be corrected the next best thing is to make him understand that he is too big a boy to have a bottle, he is now growing up and only babies have bottles. Pour the milk from his bottle into his cup and let him drink it, telling him that he now has his milk like his father and mother. If he cries there is nothing for it but let him cry until he finds this a useless method of persuasion. I don't think I would start another habit as a correction for a first one, that is like sending the second cheese after the first lost cheese. If you remember the story I refer to.

He isn't inheriting cowardice from

HEALTH AND DETESTABLE ADVICE

Dr. Frank Mc Coy

Questions in regard to health and diet will be answered by Dr. Mc Coy, who can be addressed in care of the Los Angeles Times. Inclose large stamped self-addressed envelope for reply.

Sunday—Breakfast: One coddled egg, small slice broiled ham, waffle, stewed raisins. Lunch: Corn on cob, small green string beans, shredded lettuce, Dinner: Salad of diced carrots and beets, sliced tomatoes, jelly with whipped cream.

Monday—Breakfast: French omelet on toast, fruit, applesauce. Lunch: Two ounces of meat, two raw apples. Dinner: Salisbury steak, baked oyster plant, cooked celery, salad of nasturtium leaves and flowers, apricot whip.

Tuesday—Breakfast: Cantaloupe, all desired. Lunch: Boiled rice, cooked carrots, raw asparagus (to be eaten as celery). Dinner: Broiled white fish, cooked spinach, cooked small beets, salad of tomatoes on raw spinach leaves, no dessert.

Wednesday—Breakfast: Cottage cheese, melba toast, fresh pineapple. Lunch: Cooked beet tops, corned beef, head lettuce. Dinner: Roast pork, cooked celery (oyster plant), cooked mustard greens, McCoy salad (lettuce, tomatoes and cucumbers).

Thursday—Breakfast: Berries as desired, with cream, but no sugar. Lunch: Baked potato, cold cooked asparagus, lettuce. Dinner: Broiled steak, cooked string beans, cooked celery, salad of cucumbers on lettuce, prune whip.

Friday—Breakfast: French omelet or melba toast, baked apple. Lunch: Watermelon, all desired. Dinner: Roast beef, stewed tomatoes, raw spinach, avocado salad, no dessert.

Saturday—Breakfast: Two poached eggs on melba toast, stewed apricots. Lunch: Glass of orange juice (eight ounces). Dinner: Roast beef, summer squash, baked parsnips, salad of grapefruit and carrots, pineapple jelly with cream.

SALISBURY STEAK
This steak is prepared by grinding through a meat grinder only the red, lean part of round steak from which all gristle and fat has been removed. This may seem similar to Hamburger steak, but it is really more palatable you, but I'll wager anything you put him to bed in a lighted room and always hurried to turn on the gas or electricity so that unconsciously you have warned him that there is something about the dark of which to be afraid. You will just have to be even braver, play games in the dark with him and show him that the dark is as pleasurable as the daylight and as much to be enjoyed.

Let him ring the bell and listen to the sound so that he will understand what it is. He ought to overcome his fear of it when he knows that he too can make the sound. It might be wise to muffle the bell slightly if it is a loud, shrill one.

Mrs. T.H. The eruption of teeth may cause a child's weight to stay stationary for a week but when a child fails to gain for two months it is his diet that it is at fault and not teeth.

At seven months he should have cereal twice a day, the yolk of an egg, grape juice, cod liver oil and his bottle formula. For a baby weighing only fifteen pounds it would be wise to boil the milk and give more milk than the classic one and one-half ounces per pound. Boiling the milk makes it easier to digest so that more milk can be taken than otherwise could be. Use twenty-six ounces of milk (whole, not-top milk)—fourteen of boiled water and ten of milk—one-half tablespoonful of sugar. Put this into five bottles. Information about cereal, time to feed and quality is in our "Feeding Chart," which shall be sent to you if you will send a self-addressed and stamped envelope for it.

CLUB PAPER ISSUED
The Chatterbox, first issue of an official organ of the Velada Club, whose membership comprises about 150 business and professional girls and women of this city, was distributed to members and a few out-siders this week. It is the plan of Miss Felicia Elizabeth Holloway, its editor, to issue The Chatterbox on the first day of every month. On the fifteenth of each month, a bulletin termed Chit Chat is to be issued.

CAREY WITH M.G.M.

MAL ST. CLAIR RENEWS CONTRACT AT LASKY'S; OTHER NEWS

By Grace Kingsley
Following his role of the gambler in "The Trail of '92," Harry Carey, western star and lately character player in a number of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer successes, has been added to the cast of "Rose Marie," which Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer will film from the stage play.

Carey will play the swashbuckling Sergeant Malone, daredevil officer of the Canadian Northwest Mounted Police, in the new story, a vivid drama of the French Canadian woods, with Renee Adoree in the title role.

Kinky for years as a western hero, Carey recently forsook this type of role for character parts, first scoring as a character actor in "A Little Kingdom," which he directed. He has only just finished the role of the gambler in the Clarence Brown Klondike picture.

Before becoming a screen player Carey was a legitimate actor, going on the stage after graduating from New York University, where he was noted as a baseball catcher. He is a member of the Delta Upsilon fraternity and specialized in law.

William Nigh will direct the picture. The story is based on the Harbach-Hammerstein-Primm light opera which recently proved a theatrical sensation.

St. Clair still will Lasky Malcom St. Clair's vacation from the home of Paramount, a holiday during which time he directed a picture for another company, is about to end. The director yesterday signed a new contract with Jesse L. Lasky, binding his services for a full year, according to an announcement from B. Schulerberg, who has just returned from the Orient.

St. Clair has already started the study of his new story, "Red Hair," which will star Clara Bow, and which will be his only picture between now and the time he is to start direction of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." His last picture for his home firm was "Knockout Reilly," which Richard Dix made at the Long Island studio just prior to its closing.

Carmel Myers' dancing
Carmel Myers, who is the star of the Gotham production, "The Girl from Rio," and who steps a mean tangy with Edna, is being instructed in the art of dancing, she declares.

Wherefore Miss Myers has already begun a series of lessons with Terapichew, who is the solo dancer of "The Miracle."

In order to be entirely unfettered by domestic exigencies such as a member of the family being asleep when she wants to practice, for instance, Miss Myers is practicing a dancing pavilion open on four sides, erected at the rear of her Santa Monica Canyon home.

She is considering getting up a class in classic dancing to be instructed at her home, and to be tutored by her present teacher.

LERNER AND SHAVITCH APPROVED
Large Audience Offers Tribute of Applause for Pianist's Concerto
BY EDWIN SCHALLERT
Vladimir Shavitch and Tina Lerner shared a manifest public appreciation upon their appearance together at the Hollywood Bowl last evening. The concert was the second given under Mr. Shavitch's direction, and Miss Lerner, the wife of the conductor, noted as a concert artist, was the soloist of the event, playing the familiar Grieg Concerto in A Minor with the orchestra.

MORGAN ROYALLY WELCOMED
Loew's Audience Encores Leader; "After Midnight" is Feature
BY MARCUS BUSBY
Not even a sweltering day had any effect on the box office at Loew's State yesterday. Practically a capacity audience greeted Gene Morgan upon his return as master of ceremonies at the Seventh and Broadway house.

Legion Film Retains All of Its Power
"Beau Geste" came downtown yesterday afternoon to the Million Dollar Theatre for a popular showing, and proved to be worth a second visit. One of the finest pictures that has ever carried the Paramount trademark is in melodrama first, last and always—a bit of glorious melodrama. Here are no freak camera angles, technical devices and multiple exposures, no intrusion of fancy style or artifice in direction, but a compact, smoothly grooved narrative of three brothers and what befell them in the French Foreign Legion—a narrative that reveals the attention from start to finish. Director Herbert Brenon and his crew have accomplished a well-high perfect job of complete self-effacement.
